THE "GIANTS" WIN AGAIN.

ANOTHER DEFEAT FOR THE BOSTON NINE.

BRILLIANT ALL-AROUND PLAY BY THE NEW-YORK CATCHER HELPS TO WIN THE GAME. Boston, Sept. 1.-Although outbatted to-day, the Siants" bunched their hits more successfully, and aided by Ray's and Nash's errors, scored five runs, while Boston could get only two. The visitors fielded to perfection The features of the game were Ewing's hitting and base running, Richardson's batting and a splendid ose-hand catch by Nash. Boston's hits were scattered. Umpire Valentine was struck on the foot by a pitched ball in the first inning and was compelled to retire, Knights taking his place. The score was as follows: New York r. 10 po a. c. | Boston.

HOME TEAM. About 5,500 people witnessed the game at Washington Park, Brooklyn, yesterday, between the Brooklyn The weather could not have and Cincinnati nines. been more pleasant for a baseball game, and the spectators enjoyed the contest hugely. The Cincinnati men were determined to win the game, and again put Smith in to pitch. Terry pitched for the home nine and did good work, except that he was erratic in his delivery in the early part of the game.

The match ended in a draw, each side having two The march ended in a draw, each should have a support the game. The Cincinnati men scored one run in the opening fining and took the lead. Terry sent the first two batters to first on called bails. Nicol was put out trying to steal third, but Corkhill's two-base hit to left field sent home McPhee with the first run of the game. The home players scored a run in the fourth inning. Fourz went to first on called balls, took third on a wild throw to second by Keenan and scored on Orr's out at first. In this half of the inning the visiting players also got a run. Smith was sent to first on called balls, took second on Nicol's out at first, went to third on a wild pitch and scored on Reilly's bunt hit just to the left of the plate.
